

LEADING INDIAN LAW FIRM SELECTS SMART SOLUTIONS "CTS" TO DELIVER DOCUMENT, EMAIL AND KNOWLEDGE MANAGEMENT

Luthra & Luthra Law Offices Adopt Autonomy iManage to Enhance Collaboration, Boost Efficiency and Effectiveness and Improve Client Service in tough economic times.

New Delhi, India & Cleveland, USA. – October 1, 2009 – Smart Solutions Collaborative Technology Solutions (CTS), a leader in law firm technology and legal business solutions with offices in Cleveland, USA and New Delhi, India today announced that Luthra & Luthra Law Offices, one of India's leading law firms, has selected Autonomy iManage's flagship information management solution iManage WorkSite for the legal market. WorkSite will provide Luthra & Luthra lawyers with powerful document and email management capabilities, advanced search and automatic classification capabilities for all their matters. As a result, the firm will benefit from improved productivity, reduced costs, and ultimately improved client service.

"After seeing the WorkSite demo, it was obvious that we had no choice but to purchase and implement the iManage technology if we wanted to continue to lead the practice of law and compete with any firm globally," said Rajiv Luthra, Founder and Managing Partner of Luthra & Luthra. "iManage's good reputation and unmatched scalability coupled with superb ease of use and email management capabilities made iManage the obvious choice for us. We are very pleased that CTS with their specialised expertise and knowledge of law firms in India and the USA will be assisting us to implement and support the product"

iManage WorkSite, Autonomy iManage's flagship solution for the legal market, provides a shared environment for storing business content and leveraging knowledge in the law firm. WorkSite allows a firm to capture content – regardless of file-type, in a unified electronic file – all in context. The solution provides lawyers with unprecedented access to documents across a raft of data types all on a single platform making them easier to find, share, and reuse. As lawyers are able to locate sought-after case matter almost instantaneously, WorkSite helps them boost efficiency and effectiveness.

"The entire practice of law firms is being revolutionized with Autonomy iManage. To continue providing cost effective services in this difficult economy, we are introducing leading edge technology to allow us to focus on using our expertise to do what we do best – practice law", said Alina Arora, Partner at Luthra & Luthra.

"We are delighted that Luthra & Luthra, a firm that is playing an important role in leading India through a period of rapid growth, has selected iManage WorkSite and DocAuto for its document and email management requirements." said Rajiv Mukerji, Director - Collaborative Technology Solutions.

"With its recent selection of Autonomy iManage document management and DocAuto technology, Luthra & Luthra firmly establishes itself as a visionary and technology leader among Asian law firms. The introduction of iManage will foster collaboration and knowledge management while increasing productivity at the Firm. We are pleased to have been chosen by Luthra to implement the iManage and DocAuto products in line with world's best practice."
